the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 13.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people, and the need to ensure that the health care system is able to meet the needs of older people. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the health and well-being of older people, and to ensure that the health care system is able to meet the needs of older people.

The strategy for older people is based on three main pillars: (1) promoting the health and well-being of older people; (2) ensuring that the health care system is able to meet the needs of older people; and (3) ensuring that older people are able to live independently and actively. The strategy for older people is a key document in the development of health care for older people, and it is essential that health care professionals are aware of its contents.

HOBART, INDIANA

Hobart Celebrates 125th Anniversary

Tradition is usually defined as the handing down of information, beliefs, and customs by word of mouth or by example from one generation, without any written instructions. The city of Hobart is basically and traditionally a conservative republican town. Once the winter hunting grounds of the Potawatome Indians, the area now called Hobart was first put to use as a source of timber. In 1845, George Earle moved to this area to build a dam and locate a mill. He named his new community Hobart, after his brother. The town of Hobart became an official location in 1847 when the government Post Office was moved to the site. The damming of Deep River for use as a grist mill made Hobart a commercial center for farmers and by 1858 the community had the distinction of being the first railroad center in Lake County. In 1870, Hobart had a population of 500 and the first art gallery in Indiana. The first town board was organized in 1889 and the first City Government in 1921. In the summer of 1972 Hobart celebrated its 125th Anniversary. With a new city hall and a hospital of its own, Hobart is expanding more each year.

Student Volunteers

Accepted For Council

For the first time in the history of HHS, the Student Council was made all volunteer. 50 members attended the "get acquainted party" on September 25, the first activity the council planned and participated in.

Throughout the year SC members also took part in beautification activities for the school such as: putting in the new sidewalk, landscaping the east side of the school. A special SC committee planned and organized a mini-course program offered for students and teachers on April 27. Successfully produced, the annual Talent Show was enjoyed by parents, teachers, and students. Other activities during the year were a visit to Miller's Nursing Home and a Sadie Hawkin's dance.

a certificate from the Indiana High School Press Association.

Lynn Corey attended Ball State journalism workshop last summer. She attempted to bring back new journalism ideas.

Lynn Corey, Janice Klaja, Valerie Kaczmarek and Martha Fick went to Franklin

Junior And Senior High Cheerleaders

The old saying "through rain or shine" was definitely proved to be true by our HHS cheerleaders. Practicing as they always do before a game, varsity cheerleaders remained to practice after school at the Brickie Bowl through rain and thunder. Starting something new, reserve and varsity cheerleaders both cheered at this year's football games as a group instead of separately. As another means of uniting all the cheerleaders into one group, eighth and ninth grade cheerleaders participated with the reserve and varsity at the football homecoming. Cheerleaders, along with adult chaperones, the football team, teachers, and coaches spent the November 4th weekend in Fort Wayne for the Fort Wayne South football game. Staying at the Holiday Inn, cheerleaders had dinner with the team, completely paid for by the school.

Harriers Take Regionals, 7th In State

Completing the season with a seventh place finish at the state finals in Indianapolis, Coach Don Hancock and the 1972 cross country team compiled a conference record of 4 wins and 0 losses and went undefeated throughout the season 12-0. After capturing first place in the Duneland Conference, the harriers also finished last at the Hobart Sectionals. At the LaPorte Regionals, the squad seized a first place victory over top contenders Portage and Highland. Despite the weather conditions, 19 members of the cross country team practiced twice a day, before and after school. Workouts began June and continued until the state finals on November 4. The four returning letterman for the 1972 cross country team included senior Les Gable, Ray Swisher, Greg Dommer and junior Jay Bender.

Ray Swisher refreshed himself with an after-race "pick-me-up."

Netmen End 6-5 Winning Season

Hobart's tennis team, carrying seven lettermen powered their way to a 6-5 record. The netmen's season was the best winning season that anyone can remember. The Bricks, led by Coach Tom Wuchner, also recorded two 5-0 shutouts over Gary Roosevelt and River Forest. Hobart finished 4th in the Duneland Conference and ended the season with a win over Merrillville. Holding fall and spring clinics for the junior high students, netmen helped to develop conditioning and learning for new contenders. Top team point-getters were four year lettermen Carl Beckner and Deam Smith. The most valuable player was Dean Smith and most improved player was Ted Sonntag.

Varsity Gridders Place 12th In State

The 1972 football season was one that saw a sparked-up Brickie team rise from the clutches of defeat and grasp the sweet nectar of victory in their last two games of the season. The Brickies first game was against the powerful Munster Mustangs. Triple sessions and summer workouts resulted in a win for the gridders, 15-13. Winning their next five straight, the Bricks were thrown for a loss. Unknown Merrillville, fired up for their homecoming, defeated the number-five-ranked Brickies, 25-7.

Although the Brickies lost their game against the Pirates, they had gained experience which they put to good use in the next game against Valpo. At Brickie Bowl, quarterback John Dubenetzky drew first blood by igniting the scoreboard with a sparkling five yard plunge. While the offense scored, the defense and linebacker John Mitchell held the Vikings to an 18-0 shut-out.

Then, as suddenly as the dark cloud had appeared over the Brickies, it vanished. In an amazing performance of offense, defense and just plain "gut" football, the Bricks trampled an unsuspecting Fort Wayne team, 27-14 in the highest scoring game of the season.

While running to gain vital yardage and a first down, fullback Randy Dick tries to elude opposing tacklers.

Halfbacks Randy Dick and Rick Tidwell led the Brickies' running attack by scoring four touchdowns and gaining 578 yards respectively. Playing the quarterback position, senior John Dubenetzky passed for 590 yards and four touchdowns. John Mitchell and Steve Black proved to be leaders of the squad. Mitchell netted 187 tackles and Black showed outstanding ability under pressure. Chosen for the Duneland Conference Team, gridders Kent Rosenbaum, John Mitchell, John Dubenetzky, Terry Milner, Steve Black, and Rich Sopko, served as representatives from the Brickie squad. Head Coach Don Howell and assistants Tom Kerr, Bill Cope, and Steve Balish directed the 1972 football team to their final record of nine wins and one loss. This total led the Brickies to twelfth in the state, and first in the Duneland Conference, and second in the area.

Reserves End With 2-3 Losing Season

Posting their second consecutive losing season, the Brickies finished with a 2-3 season. The first two games of the season were lost to Andean and Valporaiso respectively at 15-0 and 22-21. The next two were victories against Chesterton and Portage at the tune of 27-7 and 36-6. The final game of the season was loss to Crown Point 7-6. The backfield and ends accounted for 90 points while the defense gave up only 57 points. Starting at quarterback were sophomore Brian Wiseman and freshman, Jerry Spicer. The backfield was made up of sophomore Rick Olseon, sophomore Doug Perney and sophomore Jim Mathew. The leading ground gainer was Rick Olson with 250 yards and average of 50 yards per games. It was a long season which started on August 12 and ended with the Crown Point game.

Seniors John Mitchell, Kent Rosenbaum, Marty Spain, Tom Tomkiewicz, Dave Klos and Al Erhardt all captured first place in the Wirt Sectionals. Advancing to the Regionals, Kent Rosenbaum and Brian Vulpitta grabbed firsts in the meet. Under the coaching of Mr. Steve Balash, the reserves finished their season with an undefeated record of 7-0. Balash was new to the Hobart coaching staff this year. The grapplers won all seven of their meets, controlling their opponents.

The highlight of the season was the victory over Michigan City Rogers, 73-3.

Sophomores, Dave Kelly and Sam Wyatt, both remained undefeated with 6-0 records. Sophomore Doug Spain came in second with a 4-2 season record. Sophomores

Larry Clapp, Sam Wyatt, and Doug Spain were promoted to the varsity squad in the 98, 112 and Four experienced lettermen, seniors Ed Chontos, John Dubenetzky, Kent Hamilton, Mark Goss, and Coach Jim Lichtenberger returned to aid the basketball team in accumulating a 14-6 record. With a 20.5 point average, Dubenetzky led in the scoring department. Next came Chontos with 18.9, followed by Mark Goss's 10.2 point average. A balanced team with no member dominating, and a high percentage of baskets from the field counteracted the squad's lack of quickness. The varsity Bricks combined their talents to secure a third place position in the Duneland Conference with a 1-3 season in conference play. With the season bouncing from win to loss, the Bricks, combined with a record set crowd of over 2,000 were pitted against a powerful and highly favored Lew Wallace team, emerging victorious in a hysterical three minutes of overtime by a score of 73-67.

Cagers Down No. 2 Ranked Senators

On February 21, 1973, the Brickie roundballers met head on with the United Press International's number one rated team in Indiana, the East Chicago Washington Senators. Completing a fine season of 14-6 the Brickies trudged to East Chicago returning with their first win, 48-47 over the Senators in Hobart High School history. Advancing to the second session the Bricks came face to face with the Warriors of Hammond Noll. Noll's slow offense deadened the Bricks as Noll became victorious 25-17. In the Duneland Conference the Brickie cagers seized a third place standing with a one win and three loss record. In conference play the team downed Valpo 78-50. The regular season opened with a win over River Forest 78-69 but ended with a loss to Duneland Conference contender Chesterton 76-72 in the fifth overtime of the season.

Despite being surrounded by M. C. Rogers players, point man Kent Hamilton flips in two points during the 65-64 loss to the Raiders.

Striving for the rebound, sophomore Ed Houch positions himself for the ball at the Lew Wallace.

Pope Takes Scoring Title With 173 Pts.

With Mark Pope leading the team in total points, and total rebounds the reserve basketball finished the 1972-73 season with a 10-12 record.

A close second to Pope in scoring was sophomore Jack Murrey, whose 143 points fell short of Pope's while the ladder tallied 172 the highest on the team.

Reserver team members Steve Chontos, Jack Murrey, Sid Paxton, and Mark Pope advanced to the varsity squad for the sectionals.

Coach Bill Cope led the varsity track team to a 1-4 season, with Jeff Hersh going to state competition. In the Gary Sectionals, Hobart placed 6th, and at Regionals placed eleventh competing against favored teams, Highland and Chesterton. With only 4 returning senior lettermen, the rest of the varsity consisted of underclass. Seniors Jerry Rebeck and Vince Marler boosted the 1973 track team serving as captains for the season. Varsity Ironmen End With 11-6 Season

"This season was one of disappointment and rebuilding for next year. The golf team was made up mainly of sophomores and juniors. Next year should prove to be a much better year because of all the experience the boys received throughout this year. The fine competition of this year should help us along next year," stated golf coach, Ron Elisha. The golf season began in April and ended in June. The leading medalist for the year was Steve Chontos and the most improved player was Rick Coons. The four returning lettermen to next year's team are: senior, Rick Coons; junior, Jack Head; junior, Steve Chontos and junior, Chuck Crawford.

Valpo Ends Hobart's Bid For Sectionals

Power hitting by Joe Piscone and Tim McClellan enabled the Brickies diamondmen to win 5 games out of their overall 15. Captains Bob Luken and Bud Pope also sparked the team to no avail against Valpo in the Sectionals resulting in an unexpected upset.

Soon after the season started, Coach Dwight Mathis took over for Coach Rhody who suffered an illness which disabled Rhody for the remainder of the season. Although Hobart's diamondmen finished with a 5-10 record, losing their bid for Sectionals, their teamwork and effort was not overlooked.

With a baserunner at third junior Bud Pope awaits the pitch in an attempt to bring in the winning run.

Scrambling for home plate, a Lew Wallace baserunner eludes the throw from right fielder Rich Sopko on to catcher Jack Murray.

After receiving a two week hospitalization, Coach Moe Rhody gifted Reserve Coach Dwight Mathis the responsibilities of the varsity as both look on at the conference game against Valpo.

With a record of three wins and seven losses, the reserve baseball team slumped from last season's record of 8-6.

After experiencing a record of ups and downs, new Coach Bob Graham and his diamondmen finished with a season of 3-7.

Strong defense, powerful hitting and good speed were the foundations of 1973 reserve team. With Sid Paxton, Ed Pilarski, Ken Wring, Bob Hubbell and Steve Kirk all who were freshmen, the reserves paced their way to victory.

Girls Compete In Gymnastics

"This was the first year for gymnastics since 1970," stated Coach Nimetz. The team participated in three meets and won five ribbons. They received one first place ribbon, one second place ribbon, and three third place ribbons. The meets were held at Portage on March 1, Munster on March 7, and Merrillville on March 8.

The team ended with a disappointing season of 0-3. Miss Porter coached the team until the tourney when Mrs. Armantrout took over because of district rules. The teams that they played were Crown Point, Valparaiso, and Chesterton. Eight girls qualified for the district meet held May 5. 150 Boys Participate In Intramurals

Not having enough boys interested caused the cancellation of games between intra-school players and teams. Formation of the teams were made as the athletes arrived and special workout programs were held for those interested in staying in shape. Under the direction of Mr. Don Howell, approximately 150 boys participated in intramural basketball. Having a variety of sports helped in the development of action and participation. Workouts on the universal, wrestling, boxing and usage of the trampoline were just some of the activities held every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at the High School.

Drama Class Constructs Set For 'Carousel'

For the third year, United States History combined with junior English taught "team teaching" students the relationships between the two subjects. During this two-period class, students enacted such plays as: "The Crucible", "Our Town", and also a simulation of the 1850 Senate. Mrs. Lopez and Mr. Blink instructed the course through a collection of readings and documents in history and the regular literature book in English. Dramatics students visited Chicago to see the revision of the 1925 musical "No No Nanette" on February 7. Major projects during the year were building and painting scenery for the spring play "Carousel" and rehearsing acts and cuttings.

Hobart First To Mix ROTC Classes

Although it is on an experimental basis, the HHS ROTC program is the first in the state to integrate a girls' and boys' ROTC class. Only second year students were privileged to be in the class. Approximately 66 students shared the anxieties for passing inspection every Wednesday. On November 26, the boys drill team participated in a Christmas parade at Miller. Both the boy and girl drill teams performed in half-time activities at basketball games during the year. Also during home basketball games, volunteer ROTC students guarded the doors. The annual Military Ball was held March 24 in the cafeteria.

Business Machines Class Added

Dear Sirs, we are regretful to inform yuo. . .
"Oh, *%#5c7@%7!?! Such was overheard from a typical frustrated student trying to remember the correct placement of keys on his typewriter. Whether typing manuscripts, business letters, picture designs, or to the beat of music, typing students perfected their skills in this hand co-ordinating subject. Developing their business skills even further, students learned to run quite a variety of machines in Business Machines class. As a new business course this year, it enabled students to operate 23 different types of calculators. Keeping monthly records for companies, bookkeeping students mastered the art of balancing books and recording business transactions.

Seniors Mix Algebra And Geometry

Students determined the circumferences of circles, and distinguished the different types of angles in beginning math and geometry classes. Converting mathematical equations into different types of line graphs enabled students in practical math classes to extend their knowledge to greater lengths. Senior math, a combination of algebra and geometry also helped students in furthering their understanding in the mathematics field. Along with regular, algebraic, math problems, senior math classes worked a small portion of the year involved in geometry, working on geometric progressions.

Two Graduates Discuss College German Study

HHS graduates, Peggy Kursch and Donna Luke returned to German classes as guest speakers. They informed wondering students about their German courses in college. All interested German students traveled to Chicago's German Town and to the Art Museum on November 30th. After learning the basics for conjugating verbs, Spanish students furthered their understanding of the language by translating simple stories in to English. Second year students concentrated on increasing their vocabulary. First year journalism students developed their sense of "a nose for news" by writing headlines, copy and captions for imaginary stories. While studying aspects of the yearbook, beginning students critically analyzed the make-up of various school's yearbooks.

Gym Students Strive For Fitness

Working towards the Presidents Council on Physical Fitness Award, gym students strived their utmost in class activities, whether it be that of gymnastics, rhythmic, tennis, volleyball or track and field. Working a large portion of the year on gymnastics, students were required to devise a tumbling routine, and perform on the parallel and uneven bars, trampoline, and also on the recently purchased balance beam. Alcohol Education students were warned of alcoholism, smoking and drug addiction by quite a variety of guest speakers throughout the year. A member of Alcohol Anonymous spoke on alcoholism, and a police officer from the Hobart Police Department demonstrated the breathalyzer machine used to test for drunkenness. An Indiana State Trooper also came to speak on the dangers of narcotics. With a smoking machine, students were shown how nicotine can cause serious lung damage.

Teachers Added To Biology Staff

Dealing with cellular analysis, beginning Biology classes compared the human anatomy with that of various animals. Through microscopic work, and with the building of slides, students acquire the knowledge of sea-faring animals and the cellular organisms of human and aquatic animals. While teachers did the ordering of the kits, students tackled the unpleasant task of dissecting the different animals in the Animal Kingdom. After being fully dissected, students compared the actual amphibians to pictures in the book, or those drawn by themselves. Whether it be working genetic problems, culturing protozoans, or typing blood, students apprehended quite a variety of information. Mr. Mark Pflughoeft and Mr. William Cope were added to the Biology teaching staff. To understand the principles of chemistry, students studied quantitative and qualitative analysis. Chemistry classes were cut down to five classes, compared to the seven classes last year.

Girls Participate In Plan-drafting

Blueprint reading, sketching, mechanical drawings, pictorial views, map drawings and architectural drawings are just a few of the wide-range projects students worked on in planning and drafting classes. Developing their newly acquired knowledge of industry, students also made electrical and plumbing drawings and tracings in blueprints. How to operate, construct and repair engines were the activities carried on by auto mechanics students. Designed to provide basic fundamentals in a 4-cycle internal combustion engine, the class has many contents to be considered. Such things as engine tune-ups, minor and major overalls, front end alignment, taught students many factors in aiding them with out-of-class auto difficulties. Along with demonstrations and assemblies, woodshop classes required a few more involved projects.

Top Right—Daryl Hatton assists Rick Banks in checking the brake line for leaks in auto mechanics.

Whether designing tapestry, macrame, sculpturing art students developed their talents and exercised their imagination. Painting on canvas, needlepoint, making rugs, and creating photo collages were among other art projects. Unwillingness to carry their load on the clean-up portion, art students upset the annual tradition of painting Christmas narratives on windows during the Yuletide season. Only two or three of the better Art students had the opportunity to paint the center window in the main lobby. Required to construct clay in departments of mold, handbuilding and the potters' wheel, crafts students acquired the basic principals of ceramics. Outstanding projects were exhibited in the showcases.

Dr. Abel Replaces Bigler As Assistant

Adopting diagonal scheduling this year, HHS students adjusted to new class times and lunch hours. Saving the school system money, Mr. Walter Nabhan replaced the Dean of boys and girls, as the new vice-principal along with Miss Dorothy Thompson. Changing and rearranging schedules the Administration spent countless hours giving students the courses they needed. School was dismissed early twelve Fridays during the year due to the North-Central Association evaluation so the faculty could discuss the strengths and weakness of our school. Another change in the school system was the resignation of the former assistant superintendent of Hobart schools, Mr. Charles Bigler.

Office Changed For The Benefit Of Counselors

Serving approximately 1500-2000 satellite lunchers to five schools in the area the HHS kitchen staff provided hungry students with a well-balanced meal. Working together, the thirteen women helped to make the program a success. By arranging visits with individual students, guidance counselors prepared seniors with college requirements and employment information. Counselors rendered their services on personal, school, and future problems to whomever was in need. To insure more privacy among the counselors, the guidance department was rearranged so each counselor could have his own office.

Besides preparing lessons and grading papers teachers had time for extracurricular activities such as coaching sports and sponsoring activities.

Lending time and patience, Mr. Trammel and Mr. Burkhardt willingly sponsored the football homecoming float, which carried the theme of "Stake 'Em." Showing spirit and enthusiasm, seniors nominated Dawn Schiller as their homecoming candidate for football homecoming queen; and senior Anthoula Papaevangelou reigned over basketball homecoming festivities. Looking over the past and into the future, seniors performed traditional graduation ceremonies on May 24th. However the class of 1973 was not one in its entirety. For the first time, HH5 students were given the opportunity to graduate at the semester break. January 26 marked the last school day for those 36 seniors taking advantage of the mid-term graduation system. The senior class motto, "Build for character not for fame," recognized the class of '73's goal in present and future aspects of life. We're the greatest there can be, we're the class of '73! cried enthusiastic seniors during pep sessions and games. This year's senior class sponsor was Mr. Nabhan.

Junior Class Anticipates Spring Prom

For the second year in a row the class of 1974 snatched first place for the homecoming float entitled "Brickies aren't Indian givers." Defeating the senior Superballers in a 20-6 smash, the junior Juggernauts displayed their organized ability and team work. Mrs. Lopez, prom chairman, along with interested juniors worked diligently to decorate Saint Mary's Russian Orthodox Church in time for the prom on May 5. Heightening Spirit Week, a $20 certificate was awarded to the junior class for their constant support and spirit at all basketball games. Peggy Saylor, class president, accepted the honor during homecoming pep session. College bound juniors participated in the Scholastic Achievement and National Merit tests early Tuesday morning, October 24. Although the class of 1974 was the largest as sophomores, they dropped to second largest with 436 during the 72-73 school year. Red and gray represented the class colors.

Juniors Win Homecoming Spirit

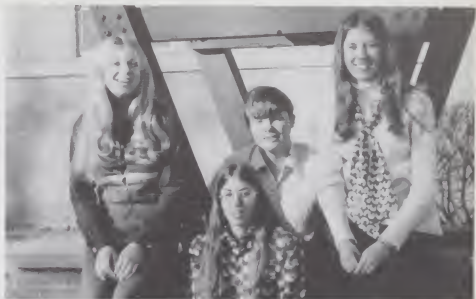

Contest

Sophomores Experience New Routine

Sophomore class president, Rob Isakson, accepted the spirit trophy from the student council citizenship committee awarded for the most outstanding class participation. Earlier during spirit week, sophomores placed second for their decorations in the new lobby and second floor hallway. Pandemonium broke loose when Mayor Brenda Kellams crowned Linda Manfred football homecoming queen, during half-time mirth. It was the first time in years that a sophomore has had this honor. "Paint Portage Purple" casted a second place triumph, also during homecoming half-time.

To supply their income, class money manking projects included operating football homecoming concession stand and lunch hour snack bar. As seniors and juniors alike, sophomores also screamed their pep song, "We're the class that takes no jive, we're the class of '75!" Green and white served as class colors. Officers and students worked diligently to help make the class party in April a success.

Plans for the future
now become reality as another school year comes to an end.

As a tradition, most graduating students will help with fulfilling their dreams, while others will go on to college and further their education.
But whichever road each decides to take, it will be one of the biggest steps into their future.

Activities

Although school activities are a traditional part of school life, each year new types of activities are introduced to the students.

Varied activities provided outlets for the energy and enthusiasm of the students at Hobart. While some gave students the chance to exhibit individual talents, other activities allowed various group efforts.

There Are Some Seasons That Should

Be Held Over By Popular Demand

Homecoming Spirit Presents Honors.

HHS Brickies defeated the Portage Indians October 6, at this year's football homecoming. The junior and senior high coaching staffs were honored at high time activities along with the crowning of homecoming queen.

With sophomores winning the football spirit contest, juniors took float honors with the theme of, "Brickies aren't Indian Givers." "Love is . . . the Brickies" was the theme for this year's basketball homecoming dance, held in the new cafe. Victorious with a score of 73-67, Brickie roundballers performed to a full capacity gym, in a thrilling, overtime homecoming win over Lew Wallace. Receiving a $25 gift for their constant support and spirit, the junior class won the spirit contest. Signing in for attendance at home games was the way each class showed their spirit.

Student Performances Attract Crowds

"Carousel," the spring musical, was presented by the drama department on April 5, 6 and 7 in MacPherson Hall. Under the direction of Mr. Ron Stalbaum, assisted by Miss Shirley Mumaugh, Nina Vietez and Don Massa starred, telling the life of a carousel barker, Billy Bigelow, who fell in love with a young girl, Julie Jordan. Facing difficult times after they were married, Billy was forced to commit a robbery with a sailor. In an effort to escape, Billy kills himself. Billy returns in spirit to help his daughter years later. Mrs. Ruth Cooper, choreographer, instructed students with the dances. "Up the Down Staircase," was conducted on November 9, 10, and 11. The story dealt with a teacher in an underprivileged, apathetic school contending to solve problems of the students. Nanc Westphal, Dan Massa, and Don Massa starred in the presentation which brought full houses during the three performances.

AFS Student Experiences New Customs

"Every time I talk to someone they ask me if I like Hobart. I like it. I like it!" commented Susana Feola, this years foreign exchange student. Before coming to the United States, Susana received a briefing course on living in the United States and our everyday problems, to help prepare for her stay. "You see, the United States is a very big country when compared to Uruguay. I went through a huge change in society in coming here," said Susana. Susana's main language is Spanish. Her favorite subjects are history, art, and current problems. During her stay in Hobart, Susana lived in Mr. and Mrs. Friedlein's home.

Yohannaire Receives Successful Profits

Continuous practice, hard work, and devotion of approximately 80 students, teachers, committee chairmen, and student council members helped to make this year's Yohannaire, "Let the Good Times Roll," a success. Dancing to "The Stripper", the Boy's Chorus line tantalized the audience with their exhilarating performances. "Si Si me sewer!" replied Euclid D. Ragweed (Jack Foddrill) when asked by Emmalita Carriage (Pat McLaughlin) to say something romantic in French during the skit, "The Mating Game". Master of Ceremonies, Dan Massa, entertained the audiences between the acts. Laughter roared from the audience when Rick Ewigleben portrayed the role of Groucho Marx in "Superman and the Army". Miss Mitchell and Miss Mumaugh directed the show, and Pat McLaughlin served as general chairman. Profits acquired went toward a $600 scholarship to a qualified Student Council member.

Juniors Win Twenty-five Dollar Award

Individual classes showed their spirit and rate of enthusiasm during football season with a spirit contest sponsored by the Booster Club. Students bought colored nails to be stuck in an Indian dummy representing the Portage Indians. The sophomore class came out ahead in the race by buying the most purple nails. Gold nails represented the Junior class and white nails represented the senior class. Signing in at home games and decorating the lobbies and halls are just two of the ways students participated in basketball spirit week. The juniors walked away with spirit contest honors and were presented with $25 for their class treasury.

Youth Council Dance Brings Crowds

HHS students swarmed to this year's after-game dances sponsored by the Hobart Youth Council. Attracting one of the largest crowds was the dance at the Isacc Walton following the Hobart-Wirt basketball game. "Just Anything", a much enjoyed band entertained more than 240 students at the December 16th dance. Casual dress and apple cider described the Sadie Hawkins dance held in the new cafeteria on March 31. Sponsored by the student council, the turnabout dance performed mock marriages, issued phoney licenses, and used curtain rings as wedding bands. Couples and singles both, enjoyed the music provided by the "Public Image".

City, Schools, Local Businesses Invaded

Although Government Day was almost eliminated this year, student reaction to the possible cancellation made the Student Council organize the day to take place as it has in previous years. Approximately 100 seniors participated in the government, education and business day program. Taking the place of Hobart's Mayor, Red Titus, was school mayor, Brenda Kellams. Pam Saylor took the place of City Clerk, Oolah B. Evans. City Engineer for the day was Paul Adams and City Attorney was Tom Lorimer. Aside from replacing the government officials, students also acted as local teachers and business people. Students involved in government and business positions reported on May 2, while those involved in education observed the classes on April 25 and actually taught class on April 26. When selecting students to fill positions, the government day committee judged on qualifications and future plans of the applicant.

As editor of the 1973 Memories, I can honestly say that I am thankful that this year is finally over and the book is finished. I can't use the traditional lines, "our staff was the best one ever" or "this is the best book Hobart High School will ever have," simply because they aren't true. An uncooperative staff, lack of photographers, and people who didn't care about the yearbook, all hindered the publication. Although our book won't be ranked Number 1 in the nation, I can be proud to say that Hobart's book is completely a student publication. While some schools have professionals working on the book, the only things not done by Hobart students are a few of the color pictures. This year, as editor, I have learned to accept a great deal of responsibility and become independent. I would like to thank the members of our staff who actually came into the journalism room after school or at night, to help finish the book. I would especially like to thank the staff assistants listed on the previous page, and Kal Luken and Leo Schammert, for all the time they spent working on the book without being on the yearbook staff. Next, I would like to thank Victor Studios for the senior pictures, the talent show pictures, and the government day pictures; Jerry and Linda Gaydos, for the graduation pictures and the editor's page picture; Col. Elmer Budlove, for the picture on the Title Page and the picture on page 206; Shirley Mumaugh, for all of her help around deadline days; Robin Vinson for the artwork on the cover and division pages; Joanna Stafford of the Hobart Gazette, for all of her help; Jerry Schlueter, our yearbook representative; and our advisor, Cynthia Lach, whose sense of humor helped to make this year bearable.
